Hadhrat Shaykhul-Hadith

Moulana Yusuf Motala رحمۃ اللہ علیہ

Distinguished Khalifah of

Hadhrat Shaykh-al Hadith

Moulana Muhammad Zakariyya رحمۃ اللہ علیہ

All praises be to Allah, Lord of the worlds and peace and blessings upon the leader of all the Prophets, the leader of the Allah fearing, the master of those whose faces will be shining on the day of Judgement, and peace upon all his descendents and companions.

Thereafter: The fervour and states of individuals arriving at the auspicious grave of the leader of both the worlds, the pride of the universe, the best being to have walked upon the earth at anytime, the mercy of both worlds ﷺ, can be witnessed to be varying. Some, after presenting the renowned words of Salaat and Salaam (peace and blessings) in respect and fear, remain silent, stunned. Silence is a sign of true love. How can speaking in the presence of the beloved be beneficial.

Others, with difficulty try to control their trembling feet and string couplets full of deep love culminating into strings of tears rolling down their cheeks :

*Your glance, O Prophet! Your glance.
If not constantly at least occasionally.*

The Salaat and Salaam narrated from the Sahabah رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ are very few. Thus the choice of words adopted by the scholars following the Sahabah رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ are mostly recited. These collections comprise of rhymes and rhythmical patterns which increase the desire and the yearning of the reader. It also becomes a means of fluent recitation and makes it easier for memorisation.

The Salaat and Salaam compiled in this small booklet are based upon the ninety-nine names of Allah known as Asma-e-Husna regarding which the Prophet ﷺ says, “Allah has ninety nine names whosoever memorises them will enter paradise” {Sahi Bukhari}.

The blessed attributes and names of the Holy Prophet ﷺ which have been narrated by the scholars, mashaa-ikh and authors of seerah, have been presented alongside Asma-e-Husna in this booklet. More than sixty blessed attributes of the Holy Prophet ﷺ have been taken from Allama Sakhawee's book Al-Qawlul Bad'ee and the remainder from other Islamic texts. Whenever the blessed name of the Holy Prophet ﷺ could not be matched in rhyme with Allah's blessed names then an attribute was not formed by me but rather the rhythmical pattern was discontinued.

For some time I had been reciting these words of Salaat and Salaam, so when some of the pious acclaimed them and added words of encouragement, I thought that if this collection of Salaat and Salaam was to be published then it would be easier to present as gift to those interested. This was the cause of this book being published.

I would like to give a few words of advice regarding this booklet:

1. You will not only be rewarded for the recitation of Salaat and Salaam but there is also a separate reward for the recitation of Asma-e-Husna.
2. Through the frequent recitation of this collection, Asma-e- Husna can be memorised regarding which encouragement has been narrated.

3. Frequent recitation of the Holy Prophet ﷺ's blessed attributes increases respect and love for the Holy Prophet Sallahu Alayhi Wasallam, which is an Islamic requirement.

4. There are some attributes of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, which are also found among the Asma-e-Husna. No polytheistic association with the attributes of Allah should be suspected because, where 'compassionate' (Raheem) and 'affectionate' (Rauf) are from Asma-e-Husna they have also been ascribed to the Holy Prophet Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam. In the Holy Qur'an. Almighty Allah says, "... compassionate, affectionate to the believers". {9:128} On the contrary some attributes of Allah have even been used in conjunction with others besides Allah in both the Quran and Hadith. Allah says "verily, we have created man from Nutfah, drops of mixed semen (discharge of men and women), in order to try him, so We made him Sam'ee (hearing), Baseer (seeing)." {76:2} In this verse, every human being is referred to as 'Samee' and 'Baseer' although these are from among the seven core attributes of Allah. It should be remembered that when these attributes are ascribed to Allah the belief should be that these are Allah's natural attributes, and when these attributes are used to characterise the creation then it is necessary to believe that these attributes are not innate but are given By Allah. Furthermore, the blessed attributes mentioned here are solely supplications for the Holy Prophet ﷺ, which negates the association of attributes with Allah.

May Almighty Allah, grace the compiler, the publisher and the readers with favours and blessings of Salaat and Salaam and may He make it the means of increase nearness and love for the Holy Prophet ﷺ. There is no specific time for the recitation of the collection, it may be recited before or after Fajr or Maghrib Salah, before the recitation of the Quran or before supplication for any need. May Allah's blessings be upon our Master Muhamad ﷺ, his descendants and his companions.

Rasululláh Sallalláhu alayhi wasallam said:

“Whosoever recites Durúd on me ten times in the morning and evening, I will intercede for him on the day of Qiyámah.”

~ Tabráni

Hadhrat Abdulláh ibn Mas’ud Radiyalláhu Anhu said:

Rasululláh sallalláhu alayhi wasallam said:

“Alláh has angels who go around on earth conveying to me the salám of my Ummah.”

~ Nasá’i

Abdullaah ibn Abbaas Radiallahu Anhu reports that Rasulullah Sallallahu alayhi wasallam said, “Whoever recites the following Durood once, Allāh will instruct the angels to keep writing good deeds for him for a thousand days.”

(Fadhaa-il Durood)

جَزَى اللهُ عَنَّا مُحَمَّدًا مَا هُوَ أَهْلُهُ

Jazallaahu ‘annaa Muḥammadan ma huwa ahluhu

May Allah reward Muhammad on our behalf, a reward that is befitting as he deserves it.
